Social Media Policy:

This policy provides guidelines to all members of Kent Raceways Society, o/a Agassiz Speedway and their use of social media, broadly understood for purposes of this policy to include Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, blogs, message boards, chat rooms, online forums and other sites and services that permit users to share information with others ("Social Media")

Agassiz Speedway understands that communication through the means of Social Media is common. In recognition of this fact we have developed a Social Media Policy that recognizes the positive features of productive social media use while doing our best to minimize the negative effects of inappropriate use in relation to Agassiz Speedway's brand, identity and the Agassiz Speedway family. This policy applies to both Agassiz Speedway sponsored Social Media and personal Social Media as it relates to Agassiz Speedway, its members and staff.

When using Social Media, we ask the following:

- Professionalism: all opinions expressed relating to Agassiz Speedway, its operations and staff must be expressed in a respectful, and professional manner
- Protect yourself: be aware that what you post online can often never be fully erased.
- Act responsibly: Agassiz Speedway has a zero-tolerance policy on bullying and harassment.
- Promotion and posting material: we encourage you to promote Agassiz Speedway in a positive manner. Positive messages related to your experience at Agassiz Speedway is one of our favorite hashtags. Please be aware that we follow all material related to Agassiz Speedway and will hold you to the terms of this policy if any material is found to be offensive, defamatory or against any of the terms noted in this policy.

If you violate any of the terms of our policy you will be subject to disciplinary measures which may include fines, suspensions or cancellation of your membership depending on the seriousness of your conduct.

By signing this document you are agreeing to be subject to its terms:
